HERE'S A BRAND NEW FUNNY PICTURE SERIES

HRONICLES

SANDMAN STORIES JULIA MURDOCK'S GOSSIP

Miss Ruth Noyes Becomes Bride Today For The Times' Children Locale of "Painted Woman" Laid Of Dr. Ralph Walker McDowell, U.S. N. Just Before It's Bedtime

Ceremony Will Be Performed at Four o'Clock in St. Thomas Episcopal Church.

ISS RUTH NOYES, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore t William Noyes, will be mar ried to Dr. Ralph Walker Mc-U. S. N., this afternoon at 4 in St. Thomas' Episcopal Church, the rector, the Rev. C. Ernest Smith, officiating,

A smart gathering from army and resident circles of Washingsociety will fill the church, which has been beautifully, adorned with palms, ferns, and white spring blossoms. Tall palms and white lilacs and Easter lilies will bank the chancel, and ropes of smilax have bene twined around the pillars of the church, with tall standards filled with lilles marking off the pews reserved for the familles. At the entrance of the church an arch way of smilax hung with white rath wedding bells has been formed, in all making a beautiful setting for the wedding party, which will be picturesque with brilliant uniforms of the bride groom and his attendants, all of whom are in the service, and the dainty gowns of the bride and her attendants.

scated and during the ceremony

The bride, who will be escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, will wear a handsome gown of style with a panel front of handsome ed with duchess lace and embroidered in pearls. The brida! vell, which will. white orchids and lilles of the valley. Altoona, Pa., sister of the bridgroom the bride's only attendants They will wear dainty gowns of creamcolored accordion pleated satin, over draperies of cream shadow lace, caught in the front with a cluster of cerise berries. They will wear caps and short veils of lace to match their gowns, and Miss Ruth Kean, of New Hampshire. their bouquets will be in old-fashioned colonial holders, and will be of red roses, violets and white sweet peas. Lieut. John A. McDowell will be his brother's best man, and the ushers will Mrs. Odell S. Smith. be Commander E. R. Pollock, Lieut. Commander C. E. Courtney, Lieut at a dinner this evening.

Commander W. F. Bricker, Dr. Cary T. Grayson and Dr. George A. Riker, of the Navy, and Capt. Louis McC. A small reception at the nome of the ner on Thursday evening. Little, U.S. M. C.

bride's parents, in New Hampshire avenue, will follow the wedding cere- Embassy and Mrs. Klenlin have invita- guests at dinner tonight. have been decorated with palms and ruary 24. quantities of lilacs and Easter lilies, and in the dining room ferns and clusters of American Beauty roses form guest of her son-in-law and daughter, the chief decoration.

black chantilly lace, with touches of to Cincinnati. jet and rose point lace on the bodice. she will wear a small black hat with white plumes.

After the reception Dr. McDowell and his bride will leave Washington for a wedding trip, the bride traveling in a suit of mixed cloth with collar and cuffs of cerise cloth richly embroidered in gold. She will wear seal furs and n small black satin hat with touches of home after, March 1, at Murray Hill, niece, Miss Jean Robson, who is spend-Annapolis, Md., where Dr. McDowell is ing the winter in Washington, will re-pictures of the South Sea Islanders, through the South. now on duty. - + -

A smart attendance is expected at the benefit musicale which will be held this evening in the ballroom of the New Willard, under the patronage of Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, Mrs. Walter McLean, Mrs. John B. Henderson, Mrs. Swanson, Mrs. Westcott. Mrs. Leonard G. Hoffmann, and Miss Nannie Randolph Heth, Mrs. Conrad H. Syme will entertain at a bridge party this afternoon.

-+-Every college woman in the city is o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, 1202 F street northwest, regardless of whether or not they are membars of any college club.

MISS RUTH NOYES.

This evening Miss Taft and Miss Anderson will be among the guests of soft ivory liberty satin made in draped Mr. and Mrs. Melville Ingalls, who are entertaining at a dinner for Miss Ingalls.

Miss Nellie Claire Howard, daughter he of rare old duchess lace, will be of Mrs. Samuel T. Howard, is hostess Bakhmeteff. The code which decrees arranged in a cap effect and fastened at a box party this afternoon at Chase's that all social engagements must be on either side with orange blossoms in compliment to the girls who assisted subordinated to an invitation to dine She will carry a shower bonquet of at her debut tea last December. After the theater. Miss Howard will entertain whether at the White House or else-Miss Elizabeth Noyes, sister of the at tea at the New Willard. The table bride, and Miss Lillian McDowell, of will be adorned with a centerpiece of of their charming guests tonight, for red roses and there will be corsage Labor and Mrs. Nagel will entertain bouquets of roses for the guests and red ed at dinner by the French Ambas-Helen McCumber, Miss Carrie Lee Chamberlain, Miss Nell Fletcher, Miss Jeanette Ayres, Miss Dorothy Shuey, Miss Eleanor Manson, of Chicago, and > Mrs. Clarence A. Walters is spending reveral weeks with her parents, Mr. and

Mrs. Norman William will entertain von Bernstorff will entertain at a din-The Second Secretary of the German mony in the church. The drawing rooms tions out for a dinner on Monday, Feb-

the Military Attache of the French Mrs. Noyes, mother of the bride, will Embassy and Countess de Chambrun,

E. M. Dulin will entertain at dinner this evening at his residence, 1270 New Hampshire avenue, in compliment to the members of the West

Dates for At Homes.

Mrs. William S. Howard, wife of Con-Upon their return they will be at gressman Howard of Georgia, and her wood.

> Mrs. Charles F. Humphrey and the Misses Humphrey, wife and daughters of Brig. Gen. Humphrey, U. S. A., will receive this afternoon at the Wyoming.

> Miss Bristol, of the Bristol School, will receive informally this afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock, and will have with her M. and Mme. Gregoire Philip Esco. of Bucharest, Roumania, whose marriage took place recently.

Mrs. Asbury F. Lever, of South Caro invited to be present this evening at 8 lina, will receive tomorrow at Folkstone court.

President and Mrs. Taft Will Be 66 1 Dinner Guests of the French Ambassador Tonight.

The President and Mrs. Taft will e the guests at dinner tonight of the French Ambassador and Madame

The last days of the President and Mrs. Taft in the White House, will be constantly enlivened with house parties of young people. Robert Taft will arrive there the last of this week, and there will be another house party of young people quite as large the end of last week.

They will all arrive in time for the dinner and musicale on the night of February 21, and the following day. Miss Taft, her brother, Rober Tart, and their out-of-town guest and several of their Washington friends will go to Manor House Maryland, to remain for two days.

They will leave the White House on Saturday morning and will celebrate Washington's birthday in the old Maryland manor, in true American Greta in such a humor. For the sprite will be played by the organist of the of the United States steamship May- when Viscount Benoist d'Azy and Miss Greta on the shoulder with her hand. church while the guests are being flower at a luncheon today on board Shuey will also appear in the cast, arrived in Washington today to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bradley, and will be one of the party which Perhaps you will find a gift there to they will entertain at dinner tonight.

> Mr and Mrs Edson Bradley will entertain a dinner party tonight for which invitations were issued to meet the Russian Ambassador and Mademe with the President and his wife, where, robbed Mr. and Mrs. Bradley valentine favors. The guests are Miss sador and Madame Jusserand, to meet the Presider' and Mrs. Taft.

> > The Japanese ambassador will er tertain two dinner parties this week, the first to be on Wednesday night in honor of the Secretary of State and Mrs. Knox, and other officials of the State Department, and one on Saturday evening, when the Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Meyer will be the guests of honor.

The Secretary of War and Mrs Stimson will be the guests of honor The German Ambassador and Countess at a dinner given by Viscount Chinda on Monday.

> The Secretary of Commerce and Labor and Mrs. Nagel will entertain

Society is much interested in the "Hat Sale" which will be held Wednesday at Jenkins, and Mrs. Moss, Mrs. Longworth, who has been the the home of Mrs. Frank B. Noyes, 1239 Vermont avenue, under the auspices of the board of managers of the Children's Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. McGowan, Mrs. Country Home. Those who will be in wear a gown of white satin draped with for the last several weeks, has returned charge of the sale will be Mrs. Murray A. Cobb. Miss Edith Goode, Mrs. Spen- Mrs. Peyton Russell, Mrs. Richard cer Cosby, Mrs. F. V. Robinson, Mrs. Fleming Newbold, Mrs. Ormsby Mc-Cammon, Mrs. Edward McCauley, Miss Remey, Miss Stevens, Mrs. Robert Roosevelt, Mrs. Huntington Jackson, and Miss Meyer.

> Miss Mary Lee, niece of Robert E. Lee, who has been spending some time in Washington, has returned to ner until home at Whitehouse, Va., on account Cieveland Park. in Washington, has returned to her of the illness of her brother.

Among the patronesses for the moving Jessie Brown, are making a trip which will be shown at the Belasco Theater Friday afternoon, February 21, at 4:20 o'clock for the benefit of the building fund of St. John's Orphanage are Mrs. Bryce, Countess von Bern storff, Mrs. Wickersham, Mrs. Loudon. Mrs. Meyer, Mrs. William Corcoran Eustis, Mrs. Lurton, Mrs. Leonard Wood, Mrs. Cune Rudelph, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Edson Bradley, Mrs. Pinchot, Mrs. Leiter, Mrs. Julian James, Mrs. Richard Butler, Mrs. Hennen Jennings, Mrs. Henry White, Mrs. Lowndes, Mrs. Walter Tuckerman, Mrs. Van Reypen. Mrs. Nicholas Anderson, Mrs. Duncan Phillips, Mrs. Walter B. Howe, Mrs. Wetmore, Mrs. Arthur Lee, Mrs. Burton Harrison, Mrs. N. R. Heth, Mrs. Rixey, Brooklyn. Mrs. Frederick Atherton will receive Mrs. Richey. Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page, Mrs. R. B. McKim, Mrs. Wil-

THE MOUNTAIN OF BURDENS.

water, Greta," said the mother as she bent to kindle the fire. Little Greta, who was a Dutch maiden who lived many years ago in the land of canals, took up the bucket and shook her long yellow plaits down over her back crossly. "I am tired of this everlasting housework," she grumbled to herself. "From morning till night it is sweep and scrub, bake and brew." Just then a pretty pony cart full of laughing children drove by. The party was handsomely dressed and at the side rode a groom on a fine horse. Greta looked after them enviously. There goes a crowd of children who have nothing to do but enjoy themselves and dress finely." she sighed. looking down discontentedly at her own simple gown and bare feet. "While I nust work. I don't see why some people have all the fun in the world and others so much to do. I just wish I were anybody in the world except my-And she banged the pail down hard besides the gurgling spring. Now, in the back of the big tree which tood over the spring was the home of a sprite, who was very sorry to see had often watched the girl when she came for water and had grown fond of Count de Pontac, of New York, who the little Dutch maiden with her blue will appear in the French play, skirt, her yellow hair and her bare Catherine Anderson, of Cincinnati. "l'Etincelle," in the music room of feet. So the kind sprite stole out from A special program of wedding music were the honor guests of the officers Mrs. Edson Bradley on Thursday, her home in the tree trunk and touched "Come with me. Greta," she said, "and we will visit together the mountain which stands far over against the sky.

> your liking." So she took the girl in her arms, there was a short spin through the air, and grave." lo, they stood on the soft grass on the very top of a high mountain far from Greta's home. Up the sides were toiling a crowd of people, some with bags city, for it was now night. They and some with pails. All were grumbling and some weeping. "You see that long procession of people, Greta?" whispered the sprite. "They | burden. are the people of earth who have climbed this mountain with their bur- Greta, "to change their's for another dens so they might exchange theirs for when the time comes to do it. We all another's. You see they are all laden have a burden, but when we try not and unhappy and look longingly at each other's bundle."

Then she led the girl to the other side of the mountain. Here al lthe people were gathered and each had thrown their burden on the ground and was tryipg to pick out one that suited them better. But somehow none ever seemed to find just what they wished. They would pitch their bundle to the ground and eagerly try to fit another's to their back, but when they had gone a few steps down the mountain they would always return and ask to have back the old burden which they had brought. "Look at this, Greta." whispered the Prixles.

llam Corcoran Hill, Miss Gwynn, Mrs. of her daugter, Mrs. Harold Levi, of C. C. Glover, Mrs. William Rives, Mrs. the Ashley, Samuel Spencer, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs.

The boxholders are Mrs. James M. Johnston, Miss Blunt, Mrs. Perkins, Meyer, Mrs. Goddard, Mrs. Pinchot, Mrs. Julian James, Mrs. Henry White. Butler, and Mrs. Train, Personal Mention.

Mrs. J. Fred Essary and Mrs. P. Wetherbee Page have sent out cards for a tea on Saturday afternoon from 4 until 7 o'clock, at 3121 Newark street,

Mr. and Mrs. William Thalhimer, who have been spending the past few weeks.

Miss Edith Brown and her sister, Miss traveling through the South spent the week-end in Washington with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goldsmith, of Calvert street. Mrs. J. Elias, who has been the guest of her daughter. Mrs. Morton Luchs, of Connecticut avenue, have re-

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar M. Lazrus, are spending a few days in Washington with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kronheim, before returning to their home in turned to her home, in New York.

Mrs. Pauline Letterman is the guest

"You see that every one has exchange with another they always find they like their own old burden best." Then she took the girl up in her arms again and they drifted with the clouds swiftly across the sky till they seemed to hover over the very park where the hildren who owned the pony cart falling gently into a hedge that stoo near the lawn of the castle.

Greta could see children at play and hear them talking. One she noticed was lame and walked with a tiny crutch. Another was complaining bit- was spent like water, common sailors terly of how hard she had to study in came ashore staggering under the liked, and the third one stood quietly by a rosebush, the tears falling from her eves as she gathered the blossoms. "You see every one, even a child, has a burden to bear," said the sprite again. "That smallest child has been lame from babyhood and the girl Came the Traders. gathering the flowers is making a wreath to go on her little brother's

Again the sprite and the child ro in the air, and this time they sailed close down over the homes of a great could hear the rich and the poor, the young and the old, men, women and children, all complaining of life's

"But no one wishes," the sprite told to worry and instead think of the good things we have we will be very content."

And the good sprite dropped the girl down very gently right at the old spring. Filling her pail, Greta ran "I have stayed late, I know." she said as she put her arms about her mother's neck, "but the kind sprite kept me. And she has taught me lesson and in future I am going to be a very contented little Greta.

Mrs. Nathan Kahn, of Columbia road, spent the week-end in Baltimore, with Mrs. A. Miller.

In Wicked City, Says Julia Murdock

Love and Adventure During Period of Spanish Buccaneers in Plot.

ONCERNING itself with an interesting period, when buccaneers roved the Spanish Main. The Painted Woman," which will be seen at the Belasco this week, in the last years of the seventeenth century. Especially noted for its color, its novel and picturesque atmosphere and its gorgeous tropical setting, the cumstances that prevailed in Port ourden and that even when they can Royal, Jamaica, an English possession in 1670, and at the time, the headquarters of the buccaneers. With the riches its coffers, the place became the wealthiest and wickedest city of its size in the world. ived. Softly they floated to the earth, Morgan and his men, and Port Royal became the scene of the wildest and most riotous extravagance. The streets women, "painted women," the stern New Englanders called them. Money unbelievable cruelties were practiced upon their cantives and slaves and life was not worth as much as the price of a glass of rum.

Into the Whirlpool

Into this whirlpool of licentiousness and in curious contrast with it, came God-fearing, Puritanical New England traders from Salem and New Bedford, oringing salt fish and breadstuffs in exchange for rum, as well as for the rich silks and sating taken by the buccaneers from the captured Spanish gal-

On the basis of the contrast thus af forded Mr. Kummer has built his play And the peculiar setting, with its wealth of tropical scenery, gorgeous and picturesque costumes, beautiful women, and underlying stratum of primitive emotions, affords a dramatic background probbaly unequaled in history. Featured in the cast is Florence Reed, and prominent in her support are Charles Waldron, Gaston Mervale, and other players of note. When it comes down to the tedium of playwriting. Frederic Arnold Kummer, the author of this play, has neither a fixed set of rules, nor a worked out system to which he adheres. When an inspiration takes hold of him, if he is in the mood, he writes as long as thought comes freely, and when it does not, he takes it for granted he is fatigued or sluggish and the manuscript he is working upon is set aside for the time being. Mr. Kummer claims there are no estently that a dramatist can follow, inasmuch as each play is an entirely new proposition and must be treated accord-Mis Gladys Mayer is the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Meyer, of Baltimore. ingly. When questioned as to the course of procedure he adopts when at his work, Mr. Kummer had this to say: "When it first occurred to we that I would give up civil engineering to build dramatic structures, I promised mysel: I would never get in a rut and never work. For every serious article I write. I counterbalance my nervous system by

MISS FLORENCE REED.

I counterbalance my nervous system by writing something of a lighter vein and the digression has always worked out to my entire satisfaction.

"When I wrote 'The Other Woman' for Bianche Walsh three seasons ago." said Mr. Kummer, "the formation of the lines and situations were perfected in less than three weeks but I had been making notes as ideas would in 'The Other Woman's' behalf. Far-less time was devoted to 'Mr. Buttles.' the vehicle I fixed up for Henry E. Dixey, which had a vogue on Broad-way, due to the fact that no strong arguments were advanced, and, as the ideas came freely, the complete manuscript was turned out in about the same time I would devote to a of magazine articles. I found the writing of 'The Brute' a stubborn proposition, as it deals with a problem, and problem plays, if there are such things, are delicate subjects and require the most judicious treatment to keep within the bounds of pro-priety and not get overboard with the subject at hand."

Gains Pouring Into Coffers.

Writing a Pleasure Instead of a Task.

Smiling, as if pleased with a through his mind, Mr. Kumm tinued: "The writing of The Painted Woman' was more of a pleasure than a task. It deals with chivalry rather lived in that period than in rather lived in that period than in these hurly-burly money-mad days. Social ethics of the twentieth century have brought about many needed reforms, and, to some extent, burnished our morals, but back in the sixteenth century, the period in which "The Painted Woman" is supposed to have lived, there was an inspiring dash and spirit to those days that furnished the world with enough romance to last to the millennium."

Mr. Kummer has just completed a rew book entitled "A Song of Sixpence," and while it has been on the market less than a week, is enjoying large sales in the book marts. JULIA MURDOCK.

LOCAL MENTION

'The Dice of Life." A Weird 3-Reel Drama. Today. Virginia Theater

> WILSON'S 1336 F ST. N. W.

Falling hair, olly hair, dands the offices of HATTIF M. SHACKLETTE

1002-4 F St. N. W. Phone M. 3474.
Only Women and Children Treated.
25 Outstanding tickets for treatments

BABY NIGHTINGALE jackets and bootees, any size or stitch, crochetted to order. Ad-dress V. D., 1825 14th st., 3rd floor.

CROCHETING, all kinds done, in the firest form; knit jackets a specialty. N. 6362.

ALL KINDS of desirable crocheting at mod-erate prices. 3833 11th N. W.

HAIR WORK in all styles from combings: crocheting, handbags, sacques, baby caps a specialty. Mrs. L. E. LEACH, 336 F N.E.

HAND-PAINTED CHINA.

10 LESSONS, $2.50, including use of paints and brushes, Monday and Thursday, 5 to 11 and 1 to 4; also orders taken. 2004 Eye N. W.

PLAIN SEWING.

PLAIN SEWING, mending, darning, hem-stitching, embroidery and tatting; all kinds of work. Call 904 A st. S. E.

DECORATIONS.

PRESERVES.

The purpose of this section is to make it possible for women in occu-

DRESSMAKING.

CALL, AT MME. OSTERHOUT'S, 1424 W. st. N. W., for high-class dressmaking at moderate prices; estimate gowns a specialty. NICE DRESSMAKING-Evening gowns a specialty; best of references. Address of call Miss A. R. Trazzare, 411 N. Y. ave. Nw.

BABY CAPS, ETC.

EDUCATIONAL.

ADDRESSING ENVELOPES.

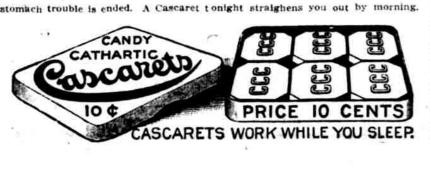

EMBROIDERING.

HAND EMBROIDERED WORK of all de-scription: imperie and layettes especially. MRS. J. F. T., 103 R st. N. W.

PAPER FAVORS for decorations of all kinds: parties, millinery openings, paper flowers. Mrs. Bessie E. George, 404 East Cap. st.

HOME MADE orange marmalade, pure food only; equal to imported Scotch marmalade, MRS, NEWMAN, 1509 13th st. N. W. GOOD home made jelly and preserves, made to order; pure fruit. 1436 S st. N. W.

The advertising in this section is not free space-but a rate is charged which will permit home workers to find a wider market for their products and service and a comfortable profit for their time and effort. Write complete details of what you can make or do and what you wish to advertise. will prepare an ad and send it to you with price quotations. Address Polly Primm, Room 425 Munsey Building.

BOWELS SLUGGISH, STOMACH SOUR,

GASSY, UPSET?---CASCARETS GREAT!

That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after cating, feeling of fullness, dizziness and sick headache, means your stomach is full of sour bile-your liver is torpid-your bowels constipated. It isn't your liver and carry off the constipated waste matter from the bowels. Then your stomach's fault-it isn't indigestion-it's billiousness and constipation.

pations which they carry on at home to offer, first hand and at a low adtablished rules that work out consis- vertising cost to them, various articles of handicraft, needlework, home made delicacies, confections, personal service, etc., to Times readers. The offers here made to you, the readers of The Times, may include just the very thing you have wanted and looked for in vain. Samples of all goods advertised in this section may be seen and bought at Room 425 Munsey Building, where the Polly Primm exhibition is now being held-

HOME WOVEN RUGS. HANDSOMELY home-woven bedroom and bathroom rugs. Alabama, 11th & N. Apt. 186

HAND-EMBROIDERED articles, including shirt waists, bureau scarfs, towels and articles and ladies underwear, reasonable prices. 1411 D st. N. E.

COACHING pupils for promotion; long ex-perience; no pupil has failed to pass. Mrs. Wm. W. Davis, 1414 G st. S. E.

ADDRESSING envelopes: will take contracts of any kind, good plain writer, work guar-anteed. Call 365 Mass. ave. N. E.